

TwoEA-M final seminar in Graz/Austria

“Enhancing Attractiveness of Environmental Assessment and Management Higher Education”

Venue: University of Graz, seminar room 11.13, Heinrichstr. 36

PARTNER FOR EDUCATION

1585 – 2010
425 YEARS
UNIVERSITY OF GRAZ

Beside the European Commission, this seminar is supported by the City of Graz and the Province of Styria

Final programme

23 September 2010 (Thursday)

- 9.30 Opening statements by representatives from the City of Graz and the Province of Styria
- 9.50 Welcome statement by TwoEA-M consortium

Panel 1: Overview, chair: Ingrid Belcakova

- 10.10 Thomas Fischer (University Liverpool): Rationale, structure and objectives of TwoEA-M
- 10.25 Urmila Jha-Thakur (University Liverpool): Overview and analysis of EAM (environmental assessment and management) master programmes in the EU
- 10.50 Ralf Aschemann (ANIDEA): Joint degree EAM master programmes
- 11.15 Discussion
- 11.30 Coffee/tea break

Panel 2: Asia, chair: Thomas Fischer

- 11.50 Mu Choon Lee (Yonsei University Seoul): EAM master programmes in Korea
- 12.15 Xu He (Nankai University Tianjin): EAM master programmes in China
- 12.40 Discussion

- 13.00 Lunch

Continuing Panel 2 (Asia), chair: Urmila Jha-Thakur

- 14.30 Shigeo Nishikizawa (Tokyo Institute of Technology): EAM master programmes in Japan
- 14.55 Rafee Majid (University of Technology Malaysia): EAM master programmes in Malaysia
- 15.20 Ingrid Belcakova (University of Technology Bratislava): Requirements of East and South-East Asian countries in the context of EAM
- 15.45 Discussion
- 16.00 Coffee/tea break

Panel 3: Working groups, chair: Thomas Fischer

- 16.15 Introduction of proposed topics for three working groups: a) Further development of environmental assessment master curricula; b) Further development of environmental management master curricula; and c) Analysis of potential different requirements for EAM master programmes between the European Union and East/South-East Asia
- 16.20 Discussion in the working groups
- 17.30 Presentation of working groups' results (each ten minutes)
- 18.00 End of first conference day
- 20.00 Dinner

24 September 2010 (Friday)

Panel 4: Europe, chair: Ralf Aschemann

- 10.00 Hens Runhaar (University Utrecht): EAM master programmes in The Netherlands
- 10.25 Michael Narodslawsky (Graz University of Technology): EAM contents at Graz University of Technology
- 10.50 Discussion
- 11.10 Coffee/tea break

Continuing Panel 4 (Europe), chair: Urmila Jha-Thakur

- 11.30 Paola Gazzola (University Newcastle): EAM master programmes in Great Britain
- 11.55 Marie Hanusch (Bosch and Partner, Germany): EAM master programmes in Germany
- 12.20 Discussion

- 12.45 Lunch

Panel 5: Synthesis, chair: Ingrid Belcakova

- 14.30 Panel discussion on "Further development and perspectives of EAM master programmes in Europe and East and South-East Asia"
- 15.30 Coffee/tea break
- 15.50 Ralf Aschemann (ANIDEA): Summary of the conference's main results
- 16.00 Thomas Fischer (University Liverpool): Follow-up of TwoEA-M
- 16.10 End of second conference day
- 19.00 Dinner